New Stuff

holy cow, where do i start...

i'll go recent:

Riley Studios Photography

finally got new battery chargers for the ol' DSLRs 👍👍

life's good...

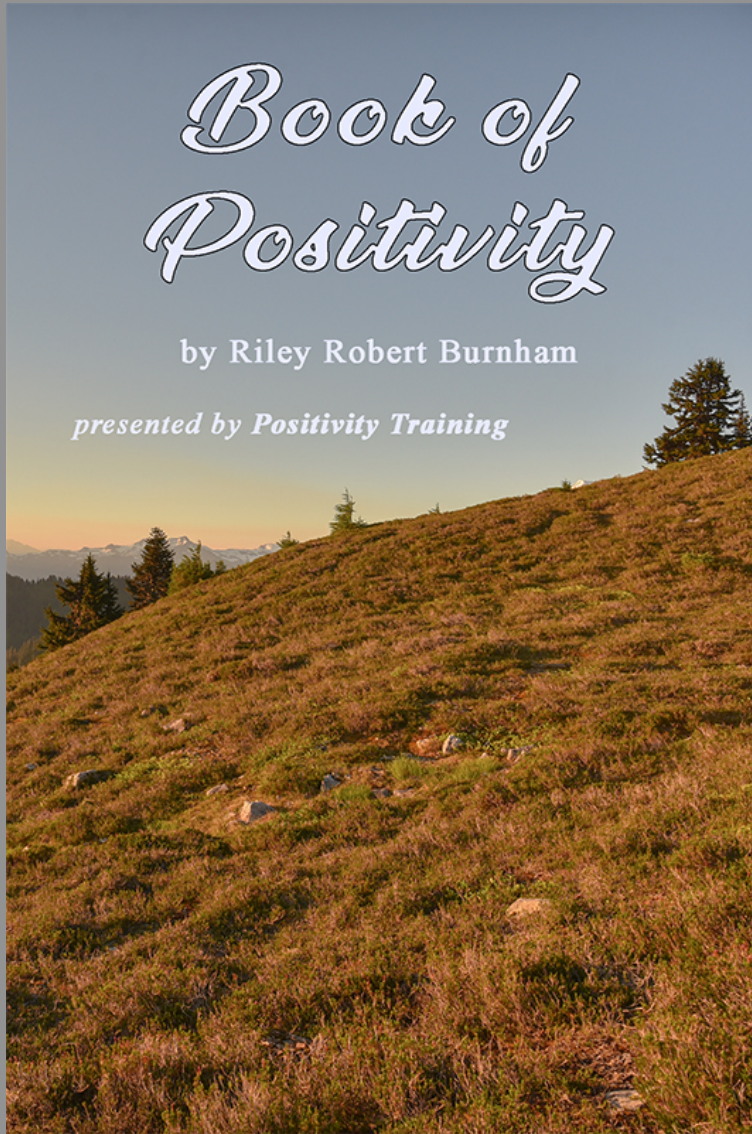

Virtual Record Store

made a huge positive change at VRS, simplifying its main-page & removing Amazon as the key affiliate, opting instead to the artist's closest merchant [such as Bandcamp, websites, labels]; or then otherwise a well-priced purveyor, or marketplace [Discogs]

so now each album-link [which the thumbnails have been upgraded to sharpest i can get & preferably from-band] takes you to primary or cool-seeming sources 👍

Book of Positivity

awesome stuff(!)

published this 29-page, 4x6 best-effort [hand-written 🙌] book, which i'm selling signed copies of on my site or is on Amazon

stopping here for the day, there's lots of new stuff across my sites(!) & whatnot, & building out new stuff regularly; almost daily [something somewhere going out there, or being made as practice...] – refining

2021 atop Saddlerock, Wenatchee, WA
